Mayor Proclaims January 18 Sanctity of Human Life Day
Proclamation Presented to South Texas Pregnancy Care Center

SEGUIN, Texas – Mayor Don Keil has proclaimed January 18 as National Sanctity of Human Life Day in Seguin. The proclamation was presented to representatives of the South Texas Pregnancy Care Center Wednesday morning at City Hall.

"I call upon the citizens of this blessed land to gather on that day in homes and places of worship to give thanks for the gift of life and to reaffirm our commitment to the dignity of every human being and the sanctity of each human life," Mayor Keil said, reading the proclamation.

According to the National Right to Life Committee, Sanctity of Human Life Day is an opportunity for Americans to focus on the value of each and every human life. The event is celebrated every year on the Sunday closest to the anniversary of the 1973 U.S. Supreme Court Roe v. Wade decision.

About the City of Seguin

Seguin, Texas is located along Interstate 10, about 35 miles east of San Antonio. Seguin is big enough to boast a top-rated university and a state-of-the-art hospital. More than 25,000 residents enjoy a range of cultural, recreational and employment opportunities. Seguin's robust diversified economy features a steelmaker, a manufacturer of automotive parts, an engine manufacture and plants making roadside mowing equipment and building materials. In 2014, Seguin was proud to be selected by Siro Group USA as the future home of the company's North American manufacturing facility.
